

Why buy Contact emergency rescue cages ?

No Quibble Guarantee:

If you are dissatisfied in any way with your Contact emergency rescue cage's performance, return it to us, and we will refund you in full.

Tested & Certificated:

All Contact's crane slung emergency rescue platforms are 'CE' marked, fully tested and and come supplied with Certificates of Conformity for compliance with Health & Safety regulations.

Fully Compliant:

Manufactured to comply with the regulations, all of Contact's emergency rescue platforms conform to BS EN 14502 (Cranes, Equipment for lifting of persons. Suspended baskets) regulations.

Large Footprint Size:

With a footprint size of 2600mm x 1400mm, Contact's crane slung rescue basket is big enough to accommodate upto 8 people and 1 stretcher.

Lifting Chains Supplied:

Suitable for mounting onto an overhead crane, Contact's emergency rescue cage comes supplied with a four legged chain assembly. The fixing points of the chain assembly to the rescue cages roof are designed so that the chains are positioned away from personnel.

No Danger From Falling Objects:

To eliminate any risk of falling objects, Contact's crane slung emergency basket is supplied with a robust overhead safety guard.

No Risk From External Hazards:

To protect the personnel inside the rescue cage from any external hazards, Contact's crane slung emergency rescue basket is fitted with meshed sides from floor to roof.

Long Service Life:

The construction of Contact's crane slung rescue baskets utilises durable mild steel, offering long service life properties.

Can Be Positioned With Forklift:

Although under the regulations crane slung safety cages are not allowed for use when it comes to transporting personnel via a forklift, Contact's emergency rescue baskets come with fork strirrup for safe and stable forklift positioning only.

We hope the above helps demonstrate the quality and safety features of a Contact emergency rescue cage, and welcome the opportunity to supply you with a high quality man riding rescue basket to suit your requirements.
